THE ADAMS SENTINEL.

CETTYSBURG.

MONDAY, DEC. 27, 1858.

The Speeches

Several gentlemen of the Baltimore Press were here at our Railroad opening, and made very faithful reports of the proceedings. We have given to a following column the speeches made on the occasion, as they appeared in the Baltimore papers of Saturday. In all their publications, they speak of the great satisfaction the Baltimore visitors experienced in their delightful visit to our town on that occasion, and speak in glowing terms of the hospitality of our citizens.

We understand that our former townsmen, John M. Sippinon, Jr., was the person who secured the services of that celebrated Musical Association, the "Blues' Band," to whose stirring notes our citizens listened with so much pleasure. John is a noble fellow, with his "heart in the right place." He has the thoughts of our citizens for his untiring efforts to elevate the reputation of his native town.

There was a slight collision near the Bridge on Tuesday evening when the train was coming in. Some boys had pushed a track car upon the track, and left it standing. It being dusk, the engineers did not notice it, not for a moment supposing there would be any thing on the road. The engine was a little injured, but no other damage done.

We regret very much to observe the tone of some of the York papers in regard to our Railroad Opening. They appear to be very envious of attentions paid to any others than themselves. The Gettysburgians certainly knew no distinction between the strangers that visited our town on that occasion. We certainly did all we could to make them as comfortable as we could, under the circumstances, and never inquired whether they hailed from the East, West, North, or South, and if any were neglected, it must be attributed to the unexpected crowd, rendering it a matter entirely impossible to pay marked attention to every one. It appears that, from some want of arrangement, they experienced difficulty in coming here and returning to their homes, but they surely ought not to censure the citizens of Gettysburg for want of courtesy, because others failed in doing so.

There were two pleasure excursions on Thursday last, on the Railroad to Hanover—one in the morning, the other in the afternoon. In both, a very large number of persons participated. We regret to learn that some difficulty occurred between some of our townsmen and some Hanoverians, about the time of the evening train leaving that place, but we have not heard, nor cared to hear, the particulars.

A very large and handsome Monument has just been put up in the Cemetery by Drs. Charles and Robert Horner, over their parents. It is a beautiful piece of work, and is from the marble yard of Cannon & Adair of this place.

Mr. J. Alex. Harper, of this place, has purchased the Store and property of Mr. John Weikert, on the Juniusburg road, (Greenmount), and will remove to it in a few weeks—to continue the mercantile business.

Mr. Cornelius Dugher has purchased the property of Mr. Jeremiah Sheets, in Cumbeland township—61 acres, with improvements—for $2,500.

The Directors of the Poor of Dauphin county have re-appointed Dr. M. J. JINGER, formerly of East Berlin Physician for the ensuing year. The Telegraph says, "The Doctor has been faithful and efficient in the discharge of his duties, and his re-appointment is a well merited compliment."

Our venerable friend, Judge CHAMBERS of Chambersburg, was severely kicked on the leg by his horse a few days ago, and has been confined to his bed since the event, on account of the injury received. We hope he may soon recover—for the community can ill spare such men as him.

There has been a revival in the Methodist Church in Chambersburg, which is now in its fourteenth week, and without the slightest appearance of a discontinuation. Upwards of 150 souls have professed conversion, and over 100 have joined that branch of the Christian Church on probation. Protracted meetings are also being held in several other Churches with satisfactory results.

On Monday last, the Hon. JAMES COOPER, of Pa., was sworn in as Attorney of the Court of Claims, now sitting at Washington City.

The Government received a telegraphic despatch on Thursday from New Orleans, that another filibustering expedition was in progress from that point against Nicaragua. The federal officers were forthwith instructed to redouble their vigilance to suppress it.

Dedication Postponed

The dedication of the new church of the United Brethren in Christ, at Hampton, in this county announced to take place on Sunday the 2d of January, has been postponed, owing to the indisposition of the Rev. J. G. SHAW, and other causes. The time of dedicating said church will hereafter be announced.

We received, on Saturday, a communication in regard to an interesting School exhibition at Belmont. We regret that we were not prepared to publish it in our paper to day—but shall do so in our next.

On Friday evening last the Rev. Dr. BAUER delivered the first of the course of lectures before the Y. M. Christian Association, in St. James Church. His subject was "Imagination," and the Dr. handled it in his usual able and interesting manner.

The Rev. Dr. SCHIFFER preached a sermon before the same Association last night in the Presbyterian church. Although the evening was inclement the congregation was very large. It was a most eloquent and impressive sermon.

M. S. CONYERS, Esq. will deliver the second Lecture before the Y. M. Christian Association, next Friday evening, in the Methodist Church, at 7 o'clock. Subject—"The duty and reward of Original Thinking."

Citizens' Band Ball

We are requested to say that the Citizens' Band contemplate giving a GRAND BALL, at Sheids, Buehler & Kurtz's new Hall, on Friday evening next, Dec. 31. The proceeds are to enable them to purchase new instruments.

Christmas passed off in a very quiet, orderly manner—more so than is generally the case. There were religious services in the Collier's Church and the Catholic church in the morning, and pleasant socialities exchanged in the afternoon and evening.

The Administration Accounts of the Estates of Philip Schaefer, James Patterson, Alexander Campbell, Sirsh Deendorff, and Sarah Hinck, are to be presented for confirmation at the Orphans' Court on the 17th of January.

We published a notice, a week or two ago, of the amputation of the leg of Mr. FREDRICK SNIDER, of Germany township. We regret to learn that he died in a short time after the operation.

Mr. John R. Hull, the H. mover, who was at the "Opening," on their return home passed a resolution of thanks to the "Blues" of Gettysburg, for the kindness extended to them during their excursion to Gettysburg, and say their polite and cordial reception will be long and gratefully remembered.

Capt. Hull, the H. mover, Spectator says, while returning from the Railroad Opening here on Thursday, had his pocket picked in the cars between Hanover and New Oxford, of Fifty Dollars, in silver coin. That must have been a very heavy weight in his pocket in the first place, and again, it must have been a very expert pickpocket that could abstract so much coin without the owner knowing it.

The Westminster Sentinel says—

"Adams county is a poor thing compared with Carroll." We would like to know very much, Mr. Grinnell, in what particular it may be in territory, but in intelligence and whole-heartedness, we yield not to your boasted Carroll.

They have had another Congression election at Washington. It appears that Mr. Montgomery, of Pa., was walking down Pennsylvania Avenue, when he met Mr. English, of Indiana, who held out his hand to him, saying, "How do you do, Mr. Montgomery?" The latter, naturally in no way, and passed on, and had gone but a few steps when English struck him a very violent blow on the side of his head, badly bruising him, and causing blood to flow profusely. Montgomery rushed at him, when English drew a sword from his cane and presented it. Montgomery being unarmed, stepped off the sidewalk and picked up a piece of brick, English then retreated, and Montgomery threw it him, and hit him on the leg. Before he could get another missile, English was out of his way. Montgomery immediately went to a magistrate, and made a charge of assault and battery, who was then held to bail.

A young man named Joseph Kilmore, aged 17, residing near Lewisburg, York county, committed suicide by shooting himself, on the 16th inst. He committed the act about a mile from home and was not found until Friday evening. A day or two previous he was shooting with a pistol in company with some other boys, when he accidentally shot his brother in the face with powder, doing him but little injury, however. This preyed upon his mind, and it is thought, was the cause of his self destruction.

The campaign of 1860, as far as Pennsylvania is concerned, will probably be one of the most exciting that has ever transpired. In addition to President and Vice President, a Governor will be elected, and the Legislature chosen will have to elect a United States Senator.

The Government received a telegraphic despatch on Thursday from New Orleans, that another filibustering expedition was in progress from that point against Nicaragua. The federal officers were forthwith instructed to redouble their vigilance to suppress it.

The New York City Whig General Committee met on Friday evening at Thorpe's Hotel. Several letters from distinguished men throughout the Union were read, favoring the reorganization of the old Whig party. The committee resolved to issue a call for the election of five delegates from each ward to a new General Committee for the year 1859, the election to be held on Thursday evening next. This movement is in happy accord with the objects of the prominent gentlemen lately assembled at Washington. The conservative men of the country appear to be determined, if possible, to prevent a merely sectional contest in 1860.

On Friday evening last the Rev. Dr. BAUER delivered the first of the course of lectures before the Y. M. Christian Association, in St. James Church. His subject was "Imagination," and the Dr. handled it in his usual able and interesting manner.

Citizens' Band Ball

We are requested to say that the Citizens' Band contemplate giving a GRAND BALL, at Sheids, Buehler & Kurtz's new Hall, on Friday evening next, Dec. 31. The proceeds are to enable them to purchase new instruments.

Last Tuesday night in the York county Alm house, an insane pauper, whose name was never known, killed another insane person, by thrusting an iron spoon into his eye, penetrating through the orbit into the brain, and causing instant death. It happened about one o'clock in the night, as the perpetrator was at that time bousing and swearing about the other. They were never known to quarrel before.

The unfinished brick houses in Curle, built by Mr. Jacob Rheem during the summer, were destroyed by fire on the morning of the 17th—loss $2,000, and no insurance. It was the work of an incendiary.

The steamer Persis sailed from New York on Wednesday with 60 passengers and $67,000 in specie.

The New British Minister to the United States—Lord Lyons, who has been appointed the successor of Lord Napier as the representative of Her Britannic Majesty at Washington, is of American descent.

He is the great grandfather of a Philadelphia, who removed to Ansonia, where the father of the first Lord Lyons was born.

The Inclosure—The whole country is flooded with counterfeits bank bill and bogus coin. We have already given descriptions of a number of well executed counterfeits on various banks, but new ones are daily making their appearance, and more bountiful and business men generally cannot be two care ful.

A fictitious $5 bill in the Western Bank of Philadelphia has made its appearance, and is a close imitation of the genuine. The vignette is on the left end, and is a group of Indians on rocks, overlooking a factory, etc. Female and sheet of wheat on the right end. The lines on the large V in the centre of the note are very scratchy. The engravers' names are also blurred.

Lodge Seer—Mr. Henry W. Fank, says the Weynesboro Record, who resides within a few miles of that place, is now facing one of the largest steers in the county, we presume. He was recently put upon the scales and found to weigh Thirty one Hundred and Twenty one Pounds.

Disraeli & Company—On Tuesday last the dwelling of Robert Dutton, in Devonport, was destroyed by fire. Mrs. Dutton went out to get some milk, and looked at the door, having her three children inside.

The children were playing with some shovels and very soon the house was in flames. The mother returned, opened the door, and rescued one child very much burnt, and the other two were lost in the fire. The children were aged one, five, and seven, and before night the rescue infant died.

Then Jefferson Davis is strenuously urging open the government's appointment of Ex-A. Attorney General Cushing as Commissioner to Mexico, with a view of arranging in some satisfactory way our difficulties with that country.

The decreasing respect for the Sabbath in New York is beginning to excite alarm and the earnest rebuke of the press of the city. The Commercial, alluding to the conduct of miscellaneous and even eccentric music at the Academy, with German theatres and theatrical performances with gypsies, shooting galleries, and billiard rooms in full operation every Sunday, with the tacit consent of the authorities and the community, asks what is there to prevent the opening of all other theatres, the performances of the negro minstrels, and so on? The saloons are still not reaching half the amount they did last year.

Rumors and Facts

It does a great deal of good sometimes to let off official farts in upon the many rumors which are started at Washington upon our political relations with other countries. A few days ago every letter written at the seat of government knew that we were upon the verge of a war with Great Britain.

We are given to understand that the Central American Colonization Association will save the city of New York from being invaded by a foreign foe, by sending to it 200,000 pounds of wheat.

The Mount Vernon Fund, to redeem the home of the Father of his Country, is fast increasing. Two payments one of $18,000 and the other of $57,000 have been made, and the remaining $125,000 will be collected in the thirty States, which is about $1,000 to a State. Men, women and children, corporate bodies and public schools, the young and old, are welcomed as contributors, and their names enrolled on the books of the Association, and will be preserved at Mount Vernon.

A young man named Joseph Kilmore, aged 17, residing near Lewisburg, York county, committed suicide by shooting himself, on the 16th inst. He committed the act about a mile from home and was not found until Friday evening. A day or two previous he was shooting with a pistol in company with some other boys, when he accidentally shot his brother in the face with powder, doing him but little injury, however. This preyed upon his mind, and it is thought, was the cause of his self destruction.

Return of Missionaries—Six females recently connected with the American Mission in the East, viz. Miss Sophia D. Stoddard, Miss Sarah N. Stoddard, Miss Fidelia Fish, Miss Anna L. Goddell, Misses Culver and Lucy N. Wright, arrived at Boston on Friday.

China—By the late typhoon at Swatow 3,000 Chinese were drowned, and several thousand more were missing.

The Cochinchina are concentrating 10,000 men around the capital against the French and Spanish forces.

Commissioner Reed and Baron Gross were at Japan.

The Next Presidency—The New York papers, of all sorts, are on to their elbows at work in making Presidents to succeed Mr. Buchanan. From present appearances, it is probable that we shall have one at least.

Congress

An interesting discussion took place in the Senate on Monday, on the subject of American railroad iron, as compared with the foreign article, and the Pacific Railroad bill was finally so amended as to require that only American iron be used in its construction. There was an equally interesting debate in the House on the new pension bill, and the amendments proposed show that there is a disposition to confine the extension of pensions for service more principally to those who were in the war of 1812 though only for a short period. Both bills adjourned over from Thursday last until the 4th inst.

The Pension Bill—The U. S. House of Representatives on Tuesday spent the day on the new pension bill, and finally adopted in committee a substitute which confines the proposed pens to those who served in the war of 1812 and the Indian wars prior to 1815. There were efforts to stave off the question by motions to adjourn, but the substitute having been finally accepted by yes 122, nays 61, it may be regarded as certain that the bill will thus pass the House. It will then have to undergo the ordeal of the Senate. The substitute provides pensions not only for those who served in the army, but also for the officers and sailors of the navy, and the members of the marine corps, etc.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The form of the pension bill agreed upon by the House to day, proposes to give $90 per annum to those who were in actual battle, without regard to the period of service, and includes within its provisions the regular army, State and Territorial troops, volunteers, or militia, together with the marine corps. The pensions are secured against attachments for debt.

The monument to be erected in Philadelphia in honor of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence will cost about $125,000 divided among the original thirteen States as follows: New Hampshire, $3,000; Massachusetts, $11,000; Rhode Island, $2,000; Connecticut, $4,000; New York, $83,000; New Jersey, $5,000; Pennsylvania, $25,000; Delaware, $1,000; Maryland, $6,000; Virginia, $12,000; North Carolina, $8,000; Georgia, $8,000; South Carolina $8,000. All of them will be collected by the means of interest introduced two communities, hereof excepting the two which have been collected by the State of New Jersey.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—An association called the Mexican and Central American Colonization Association is said to be widely diffused throughout the country, comprising already two thousand names, including many persons of wealth. Then proceedings, thus far, are enveloped in mystery. It is reported that General Beaumont has been selected to carry out their operations, or at least an offer to that effect has been made to him.

The New Census

The apportionment of members of Congress, under the Census of 1860, will make a great change in the representation of several States. Judging from the votes at the recent elections in some of the Western States—Illinois with nine members of Congress has given 250,000 votes, while Massachusetts, with eleven Representatives, gives only 120,000. Wisconsin, with only three Representatives, has given a fraction of that of Massachusetts. Compared with the votes of many other States, the discrepancy is still greater. The elections at the West were, however, held on for greater exactness and called out a fuller vote than is most of the other States.

The Pork Trade at the West—The Western papers do not give very encouraging accounts of the season's business—Last year there were shipped from Cincinnati to Baltimore 2000 tons, this year they will not reach 200,000 pounds. In Missouri the packers are sending forward less than one half the amount they did last year.
